MISSING - SUSPECTED MURDER OF ANDRZEJ KOMARNICZKI

$250,000 REWARD

REWARD: The Minister for Police and Corrective Services has approved a reward of $250,000 be offered for information which leads to the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the disappearance and suspected murder of Andrzej KOMARNICZKI at St George on 12 January 1980.

INDEMNITY FROM PROSECUTION: In addition, an appropriate indemnity from prosecution will be recommended for any accomplice, not being the person who actually committed the crime, who first gives such information.

The allocation of the $250,000 reward will be at the sole discretion of the Commissioner of the Police Service.

CIRCUMSTANCES: At about 7.30pm on Saturday 12 January 1980, Andrzej KOMARNICZKI, aka, Andy KOMARNICKI, left his residence at St George to travel to his business premises for the purposes of checking refrigeration equipment and he has not been seen since. His motor vehicle was found abandoned at a weir near the banks of the Balonne River some 300 metres from his business. The vehicle was unlocked and the keys were in the ignition switch.

Despite a massive police and civilian search in the St George District no trace of Andrzej KOMARNICZKI or his remains have been found.

Any member of the public with information which could assist Police is asked to contact:
