MURDER OF KLAUDIA STANISLAVOVNA PISLIGIN

$250,000 REWARD

REWARD: The Minister for Police and Corrective Services has approved a reward of $250,000 be offered for information which leads to the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the murder of Klaudia Stanislavovna Pisligin at Greenslopes on or about Tuesday 24 September 1991.

INDEMNITY FROM PROSECUTION: In addition, an appropriate indemnity from prosecution will be recommended for any accomplice, not being the person who actually committed the crime, who first gives such information.

The allocation of the $250,000 reward will be at the sole discretion of the Commissioner of the Police Service.

CIRCUMSTANCES: Klaudia Stanislavovna Pisligin, a widowed 82 year old Russian woman resided alone at 21 Ellis Street, Greenslopes, was last seen alive at this address at about 5.00pm on Monday, 23 September 1991. At about 6.00pm on Tuesday 24 September 1991 her body was found bound and gagged lying on the dining room floor of her residence. The body was clothed in pyjamas. A grey coloured PVC insulation duct tape was used to bound and gag the body. There was bruising around her neck, face and arms, consistent with a struggle taking place. The major cause of death was found to be asphyxiation from the gagging, however, the deceased also suffered a cardiac arrest. A rear window of the residence was found open and the internal flyscreen to that window was torn. This is believed to be the point of entry, however, there was no sign of ransacking and no property appeared to be stolen.
