The attached data provides the total number of permanent DFV Coordinator and DFV Officer positions established across the state by month from January 2021. DFV Coordinators are specialist officers appointed in all police districts to coordinate the policing response to domestic and family violence. DFV Officers support these Coordinators to carry out their functions and duties, where appointed.

The Officer in Charge of a station, by virtue of their position, is the DFV Liaison Officer for the station. Officer in Charge numbers are not included in the attached count.
