

It's illegal to sell a knife to anyone under 18

From September 1 it will be a criminal offence to sell knives and other controlled items to anyone under 18 in Queensland.

If you look under 25, expect to be asked for photo ID.

LEARN MORE

endknifeviolence.com.au

END.
KNIFE VIOLENCE

It's illegal to sell controlled items to anyone under 18

NO PHOTO ID
NO SALE

From September 1 it will be a criminal offence to sell knives and other controlled items to anyone under 18 in Queensland.

If you look under 25, expect to be asked for photo ID.

END.
KNIFE VIOLENCE

LEARN MORE

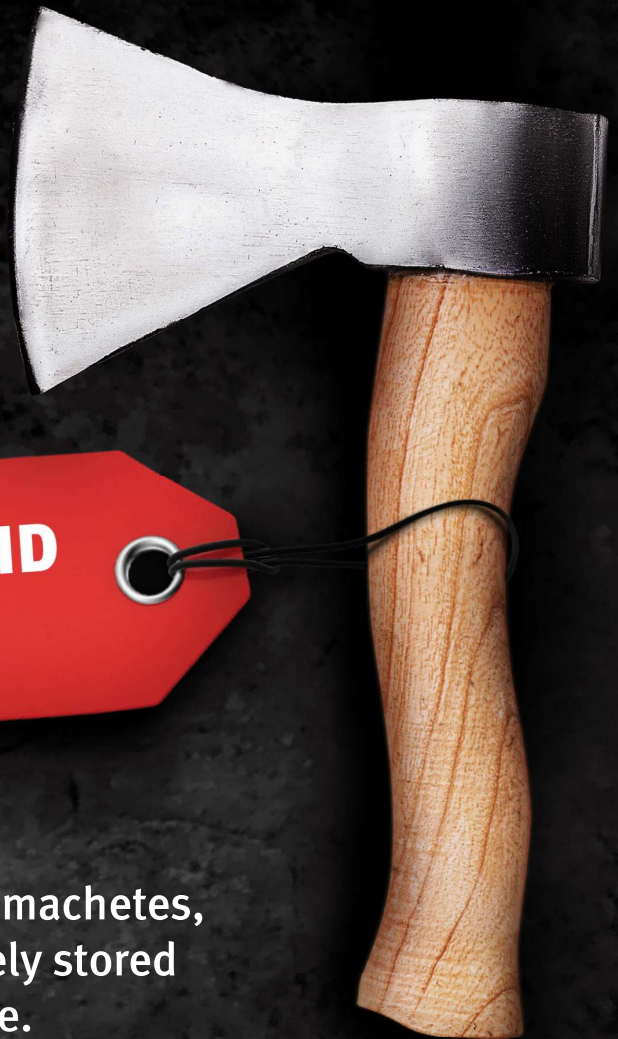

endknifeviolence.com.au

Particular controlled items are securely stored

From September 1 it will be a criminal offence to sell knives and other controlled items to anyone under 18 in Queensland.

NO PHOTO ID
NO SALE

Items such as double-edged knives, axes, machetes, sickles, swords and spears must be securely stored prior to sale. Please ask staff for assistance.

LEARN MORE

endknifeviolence.com.au

END.
KNIFE VIOLENCE

It's illegal to sell controlled items to anyone under 18

From September 1 it will be a criminal offence to sell knives and other controlled items to anyone under 18 in Queensland.

Items such as double-edged knives, axes, machetes, sickles, swords and spears must be securely stored prior to sale.

Please ask staff for assistance.

END.
KNIFE VIOLENCE

LEARN MORE

endknifeviolence.com.au

