

Introduction

The Digital Electronic Recording of Interviews and Evidence Manual is issued pursuant to the provisions of s. 4.9: 'Commissioner's directions' of the Police Service Administration Act.

The aim of this Manual is to provide members with guidance and instruction for the recording and management of digital evidence. It provides links to associated Service policies, Manuals, instructions and resources and requires local procedures to be developed at regional, district and station or establishment level.

Members are to comply with the contents of this Manual so that their duties are discharged lawfully, ethically and efficiently and failure to comply with the contents may constitute grounds for disciplinary action.

However, it is recognised in policing, many decisions must be made quickly having regard to diverse circumstances and it is not possible to instruct members on every possible scenario. Therefore, in accordance with the section titled 'Use of Manual' of this Manual, the general policies and procedures may, where justified, be adapted to circumstances as they arise.

The contents of this Manual will be continually reviewed and updated to ensure currency and consistency with the law and community expectations.

Members are to make themselves familiar with the contents of this Manual in order to carry out the Service's functions and deliver an effective level of policing to the community.

Use of Manual

The Digital Electronic Recording of Interviews and Evidence Manual (DERIE) contains Service policies and unless otherwise stated, the words and terms defined within SMD apply to the contents of this Manual.

Policy in this Manual that uses the terms:

- (i) are to, are not, is to and is not, requires compliance with and may only be departed from where exceptional circumstances exist; and
- (ii) should, requires compliance with under ordinary circumstances but may be departed from if there is sufficient reason(s) for doing so. Members may be required to justify their decision to depart from the policy.

Where the term ORDER appears as a heading in this Manual, it is used to bring to a member's attention a specific requirement within that section.

The heading ORDER and the terms are to, are not, is to and is not require compliance with. Orders are not to be departed from, unless exceptional circumstances exist. Members will be required to explain and justify their decision to depart from such policy in subsequent investigations and/or court proceedings.

The DERIE Manual has been designed as a Service wide document and as such does not generally prescribe instructions unless applicable in all areas of the Service. In order to recognise the needs of local communities and policing requirements, it will be necessary for officers in charge of regions, districts, and stations/establishments to develop regional, district and station/establishment Instructions to give effect to the DERIE Manual at a local level.

Regional, district and station/establishment instructions are ancillary to and are not to conflict with this Manual which will have precedence over any instructions developed at the local level.

Each chapter in this Manual has an individual table of contents. The contents of this Manual are to be read in conjunction with other Service Manuals and relevant legislation.

ORDER

All members are to be familiar with the contents of this Manual and any amendments made to it.

Requesting changes to this Manual

The Service strongly values and recognises its members and actively seeks input relevant to any problems or suggested changes within this Manual's content. The Inspector, Operational Policy and Improvement (OPI), Organisational Capability Command is responsible for the development and publication of Service Manuals. Advice relevant to its contents, perceived problems or suggested changes should be forwarded to the Inspector, OPI.

On receipt of a proposal to develop or amend a policy, the OPI will research the proposal and, if viable, develop Service policy. In researching the matter, all major stakeholders are consulted to ensure the proposal is congruent with present Government and Service policy and relevant legislation.

The Manual is subject to regular update by OPI and the latest amendments will be highlighted throughout. It remains the responsibility of the member of the Service accessing the Manual via other means (e.g. local copies) to ensure currency when viewing.
